DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Borgersen et al.(US 6318934).

Borgersen et al. discloses a retaining wall (10) comprising a plurality of blocks (12) with at least one groove (16) to receive a stabilizing element (22) and an anchoring element (20).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 9/22/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Borgersen fails to disclose at least one groove adapted to receive a stabilizing element, the groove extending laterally rearward of a front body portion and forward of a rear body portion. The examiner disagrees. Borgersen clearly teaches at least one groove (16) adapted to receive a stabilizing (22) element, the groove extending laterally rearward of a front body portion (24) and forward of a rear body portion (26).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
